

Bill May Boost Farm Income by $1 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the House Agriculture Committee predicted today the post-convention session of Congress will enact stop-gap legislation designed to boost 1960 farm income by one billion dollars.

Rep. Harold D. Cooley, D-N.C., also predicted the legislation will escape President Eisenhower's veto. He said "I don't see how the President could object if he wants to do something about this farm surplus mess."

In other preliminaries to the session, Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic vice presidential nominee, indicated Congress will increase defense funds. He called for the administration to say how much money should be used. The long list of defense items which Johnson said the session will consider might add billions to the defense budget.

Two New York Republicans, Sen. Kenneth B. Keating and Rep. William E. Miller, said they plan to offer legislation covering all the Democrats' civil rights platform promises. Sen. Jacob K. Javits, D-N.Y., had said Sunday he would seek quick action on the GOP's civil rights proposals. But leaders of both parties made it clear they do not intend to bring up civil rights during the session; they hope to wrap up by Labor Day.

The Senate reconvenes Monday, the House on Aug. 15.

In response to a question, Cooley said he didn't know just what kind of legislation Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee had in mind when he promised last month to push for a farm bill in the August session.

However, Cooley added that he plans to confer with Kennedy before meeting Aug. 12 with the chairman and ranking Republican members of the various House Agriculture subcommittees to study the farm picture.

Brother Says Castro to Be Back

By RICHARD PALERIANI

HAVANA (AP) — Raising clenched fists, Raul Castro told a midnight meeting of the Red-tinted Latin American Youth Congress that his ailing brother Fidel will bounce back with a vengeance.

Scoffing at rumors the Prime Minister is seriously ill or will be replaced, the 34-year-old minister of armed forces declared: "The best answer for those people (who spread rumors) — they're going to get it directly."

Raul, heir-designate to the leadership of the Cuban revolution, said his 34-year-old brother is "resting well" and "is going to come back really strong."

Those denunciations and the cynical international press and rumors mongers are going to feel the strength of Fidel," he declared.

Let them on looking at the Official Gazette have a doctor at their side.

This was taken as a warning that some new retaliatory laws — against Americans — are being cooked up. The Castro regime, in ruling by decree, puts laws into effect by publishing them in the Official Gazette.

Raul was in a fiery and confident mood in his first public appearance since returning from a visit to Moscow and talks with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

The youthful revolutionist hit hard at the theme of spreading the Cuban revolution through the Western Hemisphere.

Woman Traced to California

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Mrs. Viola Webster is now Mrs. Viola Webster Pearson and lives in Los Angeles, police were told yesterday.

Officers relayed the information to a Saginaw, Mich., funeral home which is looking for the Negro woman to tell her her former husband, Tom Bullock, has died and left her $5,000 in insurance.

A former neighbor of Mrs. Bullock called police after she saw a news article about the bequest. The neighbor didn't know Mrs. Bullock's Los Angeles address.

The funeral home at first knew only that the woman once lived in Little Rock.

Post Office Probing Lenders Co.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Postal inspectors say they are investigating Lenders Service Co., Inc., of Little Rock to see if any mail fraud was involved in its operation before it went into receivership.

The inspectors said yesterday the investigation is being made in Little Rock and in the firm's field offices in Atlanta, Chicago, Dallas, Denver, Los Angeles and New York.

Lenders Service was a wholly-owned subsidiary of Arkansas Business Development Corp. Both have been declared bankrupt.

Postal officials said Lenders Service mailed letters to businessmen offering to help arrange loans, then followed up with visits by salesmen.

ABDC bought the company in April of 1959 from a Los Angeles company which operated it as Lenders Service Corp. and 22 of its officials and salesmen were indicted April 29 in Atlanta on 43 counts of mail fraud.

That indictment covered the period to the ABDC purchase. The present investigation covers the time from the purchase until the firms went into receivership, inspectors said.

School Official Against U. S. Aid

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The president of the Pulaski County (Rural) School Board, Kenneth Starnes, has come out against accepting federal aid, which has made up about 15 per cent of the District's budget.

Starnes said dependence on federal money would mean removal of control from local school authorities, subjugation to federal aims and dictatorial attitudes by the federal government.

He told a School Board meeting Tuesday he thought the District could get by without federal aid by economical management. "As far as I am concerned," he said, "they can keep it federal aid all up there."

Supt. E. P. Dunn said it would take a 10-mill tax increase to make up for loss of federal funds.

Starnes' remarks were made in a discussion of budget problems in which Dunn had mentioned the segregation and civil rights issues.

To Open Bids for Post Office

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Bids will be opened Sept. 30 for construction of a new post office at Trumann.

NATO Chief Gives Ike Latest Data

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Western forces in Europe would be augmented by formidable reserve manpower if the Soviet Union were to attack Berlin, says U.S. Gen. Lauris Norstad, supreme commander of North Atlantic Treaty Forces.

He made the prediction after a conference with President Eisenhower at the summer White House Wednesday.

Norstad, who started back to his Paris headquarters immediately after his report to the President, said the NATO deterrent power is highly effective and — in his opinion — will become even more effective.

Norstad and Eisenhower conferred shortly after the summer White House had announced that Eisenhower will end his seaside vacation Sunday and fly back to Washington.

He will arrive in the capital the night before the Senate reconvenes. The House, which also recessed early last month for the political conventions, goes back to work Aug. 15.

During these last few days of a vacation which started July 7, the President is enjoying the company of his four grandchildren.

They are David 12, Barbara Anne 11, Susan 8, and Mary Jean 4.

With their mother, Mrs. John Eisenhower, they arrived by plane from Washington Wednesday.

They will return with the President and the First Lady Sunday. Norstad declined to provide any detail regarding his conference with the President.

Newsman asked him, however, about reports that the Soviet Union might make a military move against West Berlin.

He replied that he had no personal knowledge of any imminent Communist push — beyond what he had read in the newspapers. The U.S. government has said it knows of no basis for such reports.

Asked whether he is confident that NATO forces in Europe could handle any such Soviet attack, Norstad replied that "the forces in my backyard" are not the complete deterrent force in that area.

The general said the troops he commands are very significant in size and are becoming increasingly well equipped.

But he emphasized that in the event of any Soviet attack on Berlin, the Soviet Union would have to reckon with all the forces of the Western Alliance — and not just the NATO troops now stationed in Europe.

Newspaper Asks Suit Be Dropped

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Memphis Publishing Co. which publishes the Commercial Appeal, says a $500,000 libel suit against it should be dismissed in U.S. district court on grounds the court lacks jurisdiction.

The firm filed a motion to that effect yesterday. The suit was filed by Mrs. Gladys Brandon, former operator of the Trinity Nursing Home in Little Rock. She has filed similar suits against the Arkansas Gazette and Arkansas Democrat.

The suits stem from stories about a news conference at which Gov. Orval E. Faubus discussed the nursing home.

Kennedy, Farm Policy Advisers Plan Strategy

By G. MILTON KELLY

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy announced today he will convene a Midwest farm conference in Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 21 and will attend it.

He said he would visit former President Harry S. Truman at Independence, Mo., some time the same weekend.

Kennedy announced plans for the conference after a meeting with Gov. Herschel Lovelless of Iowa. Its purpose, he said, will be to bring together "those immediately concerned with progressive farm policies in the United States" and work out long-range plans for legislation.

The Democratic presidential nominee also announced he is creating a National Policy Committee of Agricultural Progress to serve as a policy committee for the party.

The idea, he said, is to explore the problems of agriculture, "so that if we are successful in November, we will be prepared to act in January," when the next Congress convenes.

Kennedy said he also is planning a subordinate advisory committee to give voice to the producers of various farm commodities and to represent all sections of the country.

Kennedy said he also will establish "Farmers' committees in every county in every agricultural section of the United States."

Kennedy said he has not yet decided whether he will visit Truman before or after the Des Moines meeting.

Kennedy and Truman have just made peace. Truman had refused to attend the Democratic convention as a protest against campaign tactics used by Kennedy in winning the presidential nomination, but Truman now has agreed to campaign for Kennedy and his running mate, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

Kennedy said he and Lovelless chose a Sunday for the Des Moines conference to avoid interfering with the Congress session which will reconvene Monday.

Lovelless, declaring he seeks no Cabinet post, flew here Wednesday with his wife, planning to remain for a week's vacation after his talks with the Democratic presidential nominee.

Kennedy has called the troubled agriculture industry the nation's No. 1 domestic problem.

Lovelless is one of a group of Midwestern governors and Congressmen members with whom Kennedy teamed earlier this week in a bitter blast at Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican nominee for president.

They accused Nixon of running out on farm policies they said he helped to write, and of trying to blame Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson for these policies, which they lambasted as "disastrous."

Nixon retorted that Kennedy is using "low road" campaign tactics.

Both parties have promised in their platforms to seek solutions to farm problems. Farm groups complain that farmers must pay more for just about everything they buy, while receiving less for the crops they sell. Kennedy contends Congress, reconvening Monday, should enact emergency farm aid legislation and so something about the costly crop surpluses now plaguing farmers and the government. He has not yet

The local VFW Post will take a truckload of Hempstead watermelons to Fort Rooks at North Little Rock Sunday. All persons interested in going are asked to meet at Diamond Gate at 9 a. m. — this is an annual project of the local post.

The mobile X-Ray Unit from the Arkansas State Board of Health will be in Hope the last of August to take chest X-Rays — a complete schedule will be announced — all persons 18 years and older are urged to take advantage of this free service.

Third District Livestock Show will be held here September 19-21 for the 16th straight year. The new 16 page catalogue is currently being distributed downtown.

During the first six months of this year Arkansas recorded 178 highway deaths — there were 23 weeks in Hempstead resulting in the death of six persons.

Howard had 11 weeks, but no deaths. — Lafayette County recorded 17 accidents and one death — Nevada County reported 18 accidents and two fatalities.

Hope Fire Department made a run to Anthony's Flooring Mill yesterday and put out a blazing stack of lumber that caught from the sidewalk — only the lumber was damaged.

According to Police Records there were 16 arrests for drunk driving in June — nine for driving while intoxicated — nine for disturbing the peace — eight for hazardous driving — eight for speeding — seven with no driver's license — seven persons parked improperly — four ran red lights — and four were arrested for gambling.

Among the sports she is interested in tennis, swimming, golf, and archery. Judy is sponsored in the contest by the Hope Jaycees.

Faubus to Skip Religious Meet

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus won't speak at a Tulsa, Okla., religious meeting tomorrow night, but Rep. Dale Alford (D-Ark.) still plans to attend.

Faubus yesterday sent a telegram to evangelist Billy James Hargis saying that he would be unable to attend the Christian Crusade meeting on the theme of the threat of Communism.

Faubus also dropped plans to attend a barbecue at the ranch of Oklahoma Sen. Robert Kerr near Oklahoma City tomorrow.

Alford's office said there had been no change in his plans, which call for an appearance at the Tulsa meeting.

Faubus was scheduled to speak today in Booneville at the dedication of a new American Hard Rubber Co. bowling ball plant. Guided tours of the two million dollar building will follow the dedication ceremony. Construction of the new factory began in January.

Skier Is Hit by Boat Pulling Him

MOUNTAIN HOME, Ark. (AP) — A willow Springs, Mo., water skier was injured yesterday when he was struck by the boat which had been towing him. Leon H. Miller, 29, was in fair condition in a Harrison hospital.

Authorities said Bill Anderson, also of Willow Springs, stopped the boat after the tow rope broke. When he started the boat again, Anderson fell out and the unmanned boat then hit Miller.

Miller suffered cuts and possible other injuries. He was transferred to Harrison after treatment in a Mountain Home hospital.

Nixon, by flying to the island group, became the first presidential candidate to court votes outside the continental limits of the United States.

On the go continually, and grabbing a snack when he could, Nixon made a half-dozen ceremonial and handshaking stops during the day.

For the most part, he touched on foreign policy and security. He used Hawaii as an example of practicing equality among people.

Based on his travels, which have taken him to Africa and Asia, Nixon said the greatest problem of the United States in the battle of ideas is explaining how Americans can talk equality and dignity of man abroad and practice prejudice and inequality at home.

Nixon directly pulled Kennedy into his line of fire. After he and Mrs. Nixon cut lines of white carnations over the snoken hull of the battleship Arizona in Pearl Harbor, the vice president said any chief executive must give first priority to the nation's security.

As part of that, he emphasized an intelligence service capable of guarding against a surprise attack which could be "un-

Troubleshooter for UN Rushes to Katanga

By LYNN HEINZERLING

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — U. N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold, "troubleshooter" in Katanga today after giving assurances that U. N. forces will not try to enforce the central Congo government's claim on the rich secessionist province.

Dr. Ralph J. Bunche flew to Elisabethville, the Katanga capital, a day ahead of scheduled arrival. Katanga Premier Moise Tshombe warned U. N. forces "will have to fight their way in" to his province.

The U. N. Command went ahead with plans to send its first units to Katanga Saturday despite Tshombe's threat. A special military task force was alerted to stand by for the move.

Privately U. N. officials said they expected no serious resistance in the mineral-rich province, whose secession would spell economic doom for the rest of the vast central African country.

The Katanga government ordered general mobilization of all able-bodied men in the province, both black and white, to back up the hard core of 500 loyal Congolese troops serving under Belgian officers.

Hammarskjold sought to soften the defiance of the Katanga leaders by emphasizing the U. N. troops were not acting as agents for the central government of Premier Patrice Lumumba.

He said in a statement that the U. N. force is not under the orders of the Lumumba government nor can it be permitted to become a party to any internal conflict.

The fear he sought to allay first was that by Katanga Interior Minister Godefroid Munongo, who said, "We know only too well that the U. N. forces would bring in their baggage the agents of Lumumba."

Tshombe, in declaring Katanga independent of the central government soon after the Congolese army's mutiny last month, charged that Lumumba was planning to set up a Communist dictatorship. The provincial premier and the Congo's provinces joined in a loose federation, with their province retaining much of the revenue from its rich uranium and copper mines and its fertile fields and pastures. Lumumba wants a strong central government and looks to Katanga to finance the poorer remainder of the country.

Although the Belgian cabinet agreed Tuesday that Belgian troops in Katanga would turn over their peace-keeping mission to the U. N. forces, Premier Gaston Eyskens said in Brussels Wednesday night their departure would not be immediate.

Belgian Foreign Minister Pierre Wigny told a news conference the Belgian forces, who have been keeping order at the request of Tshombe's government, would leave only when the Belgian command "decides that the security of persons there is assured."

The Soviets, who charged Wednesday in Pravda that Hammarskjold was acting in the Congo as a pro-American agent, said Wednesday night the decision to send U. N. troops into Katanga struck a blow at those who hoped to "ignore" Security Council decisions.

Middlecoff Heads Blytheville Play

BLYTHEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Noted Memphis pro Gary Middlecoff heads the field of the King Cotton pro-am golf tournament which begins today at the Blytheville Country Club.

Middlecoff will team with Dr. George Courts of Memphis.

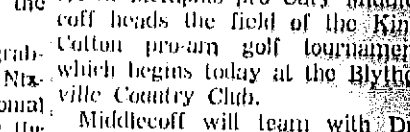

Hallman Robbins, a former national amateur champion, will team with Barney Osmont, former Arkansas amateur titlist. Pete Fleming, 1960 Arkansas Open winner, is entered with John Busick.

M. C. (Sammy) McElvin of Little Rock, this year's Arkansas amateur winner, also is among those entered.

The tourney runs for four days.

Then, speaking to a crowd at Kamehameha Shopping Center, Nixon said:

In his speech accepting the nomination, Nixon declared that his Democratic opponent had said President Eisenhower could have apologized to the Soviet Union for the 1952 spy plane incident.

Kennedy has insisted he did not recommend an apology—that Nixon misrepresented his comment about the possibility of expressing regret to save the summit conference. Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev torpedoed.

Rocket Ship Hits 2,150 Miles an Hour

By RALPH BIGHTON

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—The X15 rocket ship, warming up for trips to the edge of space, streaked 2,150 m.p.h. today—fastest flight on record for a manned craft—but just by a whisker.

Joe Walker, test pilot for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, was at the controls and becomes the new "fastest human."

The earlier mark was 2,094 m.p.h. reached here Sept. 27, 1956, in the X2 research plane by Air Force Capt. Milburn G. Apt. He was killed moments later when it went out of control and crashed.

Walker may have bettered that in an X15 flight last May 12, when he hit Mach 3.2—or 3.2 times the speed of sound, plus or minus five per cent due to possible instrument error.

The plus would make his speed 2,148 m.p.h., a mark surpassing Apt's. The minus would make it 2,074 m.p.h., or below Apt's.

The record for conventional jet planes is 1,525 m.p.h., set here last Dec. 15 in a Convair F106 Delta Dart by Maj. Joseph W. Rogers.

Walker today opened all eight barrels of the X15's twin rocket engines, trying to push the plane

Industrial Bonds for Lake Village

LAKE VILLAGE, Ark. (AP)—

Voters yesterday approved $350,000

The power plant that set today's mark is made up of two four-barrel engines similar to the single four-barrel rocket that drove the smaller X2 to its record.

For the final assaults on space, a single-chamber engine developing more than three times the thrust of those used today will be installed in all of the three X15s. It is expected to drive them at speeds up to 4,000 m.p.h.

NASA said today's mark of 2,150 m.p.h. is not subject to the five per cent plus or minus error, as new instruments were used in the clocking.

Plane Lands Safely

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—A four-engine American Airlines plane with 27 passengers aboard landed safely here today despite trouble in its hydraulic system.

The flight from New York to Rochester, Detroit and Chicago, was diverted here because of weather.

In industrial bond issues by overwhelming margins.

The vote was 298-9 on a $60,000 bond issue under Amendment 49 and 207-10 on a $200,000 bond issue under Act 9 of 1959, a new industrial financing law.

The bonds will finance construction of a plant for Brown Century Corp., which makes men's underwear. It is expected to employ about 250 persons.

A Missile Expert Heads Toy Firm

NEW YORK (AP)—Major Gen. John B. Medaris, former head of the Army rocket and guided missile program, today became president of a toy train manufacturing company.

Lionel has long been the nation's largest manufacturer of electric trains and accessories. It also makes other electric and mechanical toys, chemistry sets and sporting equipment.

The company also manufactures on explosive switch with broad applications in bombs, missiles, rockets and mines.

Medaris resigned from the Army in January. At that time he claimed the United States' "reluctant dragon" attitude toward space was leading to disaster.

Orkin Man Trying to Prove Sanity

ATLANTA (AP)—The head of a leading pest extermination firm claimed at a Lunacy Commission hearing that his two sons had him doped and held in a mental hospital.

Otto Orkin, 72, told the commission yesterday his sons were trying to get rid of him and take over his vast business which has 400 branches in 28 states.

The Lunacy Commission said psychological tests will be made of Orkin to assist the commission in its findings. The Latin-born Orkin rose from a country boy selling rat poison to the head of the vast firm.

Orkin is asking the commission to declare him sane and remove the guardian—his son, Sanford H. Orkin—who was appointed for him May 16 when he was declared incompetent.

A psychiatrist, Dr. Winston E. Burdine, said he found Orkin to be competent, oriented and with normal judgment for his age.

Lawyers for Orkin put up a number of his acquaintances and three male nurses as witnesses to testify to his mental condition. One said Orkin is "as sane as anybody in this courtroom."

A nephew, Louis, Collier of Memphis, Tenn., said one of Orkin's sons, William, told him in 1956 that he "didn't give a hang" about his father and that he was "interested in his father's money."

Orkin testified he was given dope and carried from his Atlanta apartment to a hospital. He said later he was put on a private plane and carried to another hospital in Baltimore.

Political Battle in Louisiana

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—A political fight appeared to be shaping up today on the issue of presidential electors for the November ballot.

At a meeting yesterday in Baton Rouge, a group of states' rights and segregation advocates—disgruntled over the Democratic platform stand on civil rights—asked Gov. Jimmie Davis to call a special meeting of the state Democratic Committee to consider putting unpledged elector candidates on the ballot.

Following the session Davis said he would call such a meeting. But he didn't indicate when it would be.

A leader of forces backing Democratic presidential nominee John F. Kennedy threatened legal action against any attempt to substitute a slate of free electors for regular Democratic Party electors on the ballot.

At Opelousas, Clarence Martin, co-chairman of the statewide Kennedy committee told a group of Kennedy supporters "will meet with the biggest legal fight you can imagine."

Man Charged With Flying Drunk

SEARCY, Ark. (AP)—James E. Thomas, 35, of Augusta, is scheduled to be tried Aug. 17 in Municipal Court on charges of operating an airplane while intoxicated.

The trial was postponed yesterday. Thomas was arrested early Tuesday after a plane landed on U.S. Highway 67 here. He denies he was the pilot. He is free on $250 bond.

Lodge Hitting Peak

LONDON (AP)—Moscow Radio said today that Henry Cabot Lodge "is reaching the peak of his political career on a wave of artificially fanned anti-Communist hysteria."

Miss Carolyn Maxcine McAdams and Orville Bruner United in Marriage.

Miss Carolyn Maxcine McAdams and Orville Donald Bruner exchanged marriage vows in an impressive double ring ceremony Sunday, July 30, 1960 at 6 p. m. at the home of the brides parents, Rev. Jesse W. McAdams, uncle of the bride was the officiating minister. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall L. McAdams of Kilgore, Texas, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Bruner of Edna, Tex., formerly of Levee Chapel.

The marriage was performed before an altar banked with the bride's chosen flowers and greenery. Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a dress of light beige, Arnel and cotton. Her accessories were beige also. She carried a white Bible topped with a white bridal bouquet with white satin streamers.

Miss Wanda Letsinger of Kilgore was matron of honor. She wore a dress of printed taffeta with an overskirt of beige nylon chiffon. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

The brides mother wore a dress of light beige cotton with white accessories. At her shoulder she pinned a pink carnation corsage.

Lee Bryan of Levee Chapel was best man. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the dining room. The table was covered with an imported lace cloth with an undercloth of pink linen. At one end was the traditional three tiered wedding cake topped with the miniature bride and groom while the crystal punch bowl was at the opposite end. The punch was served by Mrs. Jesse W. McAdams, aunt of the bride and Mrs. J. R. Johnson served the cake. Misses Judy and Linda McAdams, sister and cousin of the bride was in charge of the brides book.

The couple left immediately after the reception for a short wedding trip. They will make their home in Vidalia, La. where the groom is employed.

Miss Kay Kent Honored With Bridal Shower

A bridal shower for Miss Kay Kent was held at the W. O. W. Hall on Saturday night, July 30. Hostesses were Mrs. Chester May, Mrs. Kelly Walton, Mrs. Homer Odum, Mrs. Eldridge Formby, Mrs. Jimmie Griffin, Mrs. T. L. Brint, and Mrs. Huron Light.

The honoree was attired in a figured voile frock, and she pinned a pink carnation corsage at her shoulder. Mrs. Lester Kent, mother of the bride-elect, wore a yellow carnation corsage. Miss Kent received many nice gifts, including one of silver in her chosen pattern from the hostesses.

Games were directed by Mrs. Jimmie Griffin, and the winners were Mrs. Hanson Barr, Mrs. Guy Martin, and Mrs. Edna Holliday. The serving table, overlaid with a cloth of white linen, was decorated with pink carnations and pink candles. From it the guests were served frosted time punch and cake squares.

Miss Billie Louise Waters

Mr. and Mrs. Halbert H. Waters of Texarkana announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Billie Louise, to Dwight W. Wood, son of Mrs. J. W. Wood and the late J. W. (Toke) Wood of DeKalb, Texas. The bride-elect is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Waters, of Rosston and the late Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Starritt of Troy, Ark.

The future bride was graduated from Arkansas High School and Texarkana College where she was Homecoming Queen, Captain of the Starlettes, and finalist in the Miss Saint Patricia Pageant, and Secretary of Pinhellenic at the University of Arkansas.

Her fiancé was graduated from DeKalb High School and attended East Texas State in Commerce. He is presently engaged in business in DeKalb.

The couple plan to be married August 13 by the cousin of the bride, the Rev. D. O. Silvey.

Wife Regrets Leaving — Wants Husband Back

By HELEN WORDEN ERKINE

Dear Helen:

My husband and I have been separated 10 months. We were quite young when we married. Our little boy is two years old.

Our little boy is two years old and hardly knows his father. That breaks my heart. But it seems impossible for my husband even to try to get along. We sit down to talk things over and end up being twice as angry as we were.

Right after I left, my husband begged me to come back. I said I no longer loved him but within my heart I knew I loved him as dearly as ever. I just feared being hurt again.

Now although I have a good position with more than enough to care for my son and myself I've found out the hard way that it takes someone to love and be loved in return to make life complete. How can I convince my husband I'm sincere when I say I really want him back? I would appreciate it if at least a part of this letter be printed. Perhaps he will read it and come home to stay. —B.H.

Dear B.H.: The surest way for your husband to convince himself of your love is to give your marriage a second try. Unless he does, he will remain adolescent. Only the immature evade responsibility. Show him my reply.

Dear Helen:

I am 14 Whenever my parents answer the telephone and it's for me, they say I'm not at home. I don't think this is right. When I do use the phone, I don't talk long. Are my parents right or am I? —Bombay Girl.

I Dear Bombay Girl: You're

probably one of those very popular girls whose eager beaver boy friends keep the phone ringing 24 hours of the day. Your parents may simply be acting in self defense. However, that's no justification for not saying what's what. There should be a definite hour each day set for you and to try to get along. We sit down to talk things over and end up being twice as angry as we were.

Doesn't Know of $5,000 Legacy

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Mrs. M. Webster Bullock is worth $5,000 but she doesn't know it.

Police here received word yesterday that Tom Bullock, an Arkansas Negro, common law husband of Mrs. Bullock, had died at St. Mary's Hospital in Little Rock.

However, the address listed for Mrs. Bullock on the police file was a night club for years.

Police said they had to delay to find the woman who might have moved or died.

Assessment of Utilities Up

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Utility and railroad assessments in Arkansas are up $11,045,515 this year over 1959, to a total of $249,791,580.

Earl Berry, director of utility assessments for the Assessment Coordination Division, said yesterday truck and bus lines were not included in the totals. These assessments, which totaled $5,135,010 last year, are not complete, he said.

Ten private electric companies were assessed at a total of $74,113,480, the largest single category. Thirty railroads were assessed a total of $66,137,095 with 14 gas transmission companies pegged at $51,454,500.

Highway Thinking of Snow Problems

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - While most Arkansians are thinking about summer vacation, highway department officials are pondering snow problems.

"Last winter showed us that we just didn't have the equipment in Northwest Arkansas to clear the roads of snow and ice," said C. Don Hayes, the Department's equipment director.

To help remedy this, the Department yesterday invested $1,371 in new snow removal equipment, which Hayes said was the largest purchase of snow-fighting machinery in 35 years.

The Lyons Machinery Co. of Little Rock received the contract for the equipment.

Municipal Services Not Always Good

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Paul Sims, 35, received a wide range of municipal services yesterday. Firemen put out a fire which burned a hole in a floor and destroyed an upholstered chair in Sims' home. The rescue squad then revived Sims, who had been seated in the chair and was dragged from the burning house.

Sims also got first aid for minor burns. Then police took him to jail on an intoxication charge.

Officers said the fire apparently began when Sims went to sleep in the chair while smoking.

Boyer Back on Form, Cards Win 6 in Row

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's no accident that the latest spurt of the St. Louis Cardinals—six straight victories—coincides with the return to batting form of Ken Boyer.

The slugging third baseman got off to a low start this year and the team did likewise. A pulled muscle on top of a batting slump belittled him for a while.

A week ago, Boyer returned to the lineup and immediately began hitting. The Cards responded by running up a winning streak that Wednesday had them in third place, 3½ games behind league-leading Pittsburgh and only half a game behind second place Milwaukee.

Boyer smashed a home run and two singles. Wednesday night, scored three runs and drove in two as the Cards outslugged the Braves (4-0).

Pittsburgh retained its three-game edge on the Braves although beaten by Los Angeles 3-1. The game was called at the end of seven innings because of rain.

Philadelphia made it three in a row over San Francisco, 6-5, and Cincinnati split with Chicago. The Cubs won the nightcap, 4-2, after the Reds had taken the opener 7-3.

Detroit crushed New York 12-2 but the Yankees retained their one-game American League lead over Chicago, beaten by Baltimore 6-5 in 11 innings. Cleveland downed Washington 7-4. Rain forced the postponement of the scheduled doubleheader between Kansas City and the Red Sox in Boston.

Johnny Podres' seven-hit pitching and Wally Moon's two-run homers, his 10th of the season, led the Dodgers to victory over Pittsburgh. Bob Friend was the loser.

Pinch hitter John Cason's two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth gave the Phils their one-run triumph over the Giants. Cason's homer provided Dick Farrell with his second victory in two nights over the Giants.

Ernie Banks' 29th home run, with a man on base, was the difference in the Cubs second game triumph over the Reds. Cincinnati had snapped a six-game losing streak in the opener, largely due to homers by rookie Gordon Coleman and Vada Pinson.

Clara, the Trained Hen, Is Missing

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Clara, a trained hen who passed out postcards for coins, is gone from her vending machine home on Central Avenue, Hot Springs' main street.

Police said the hen was taken from her glass cage Tuesday night. When coins were inserted in the machine, Clara would pick up a postcard in her bill and drop it through an opening to the customer.

A hen which "told fortunes" in a similar device disappeared several weeks ago.

A reward has been offered for detection of the chicken thief or return of the hens.

Woodling Bats Orioles to Win Over Chisox

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baltimore manager Paul Richards has a right to be proud of his fledgling Orioles but he ought to thank his stars that the oldest bird of them all changed his mind about retiring.

The "old bird" is Gene Woodling, who'll be 38 in two weeks but he doesn't act it. Last Monday night Woodling singled in the winning run against Chicago. Wednesday night Gene tripled home the run in the 11th inning that gave the Orioles a 6-5 victory over the White Sox.

The triumph moved the third place Orioles to within two games of the American League leading New York Yankees and one game of the second place Sox.

The Yankees were soundly whipped by the Detroit Tigers, 12-2, but hung on to their one-game margin over Chicago. Cleveland's fourth place Indians defeated Washington 7-4 to advance to within six games of the top. The scheduled doubleheader between Kansas City and Boston was rained out.

St. Louis' red-hot Cardinals outslugged Milwaukee 13-8 to move to within a half game of the second place Braves in the National League. Los Angeles whipped first place Pittsburgh 3-1. Philadelphia made it three straight over San Francisco, 6-5 and Cincinnati split with Chicago. The Reds won the opener 7-3 and the Cubs took the nightcap 4-2.

A single by Billy Klaus preceded Woodling's game winning blow.

Woodling although hitting .267 is one of Baltimore's leading RBI men with 37. At the end of last season, his 14th in the majors, the veteran was seriously thinking of quitting but reconsidered after talking it over with Richards.

Looking not at all like the team that had lost nine of its last 11, the Tigers flogged four Yankee pitchers for 13 hits, including a home run by Norm Cash.

Tiger southpaw Hank Aguirre retired the first 16 Yankee batters in order before John Blanchard singled with one out in the sixth. Aguirre's arm tightened up after the sixth and his reliever, Phil Regan, was reached for four hits, including a two-run homer by Blanchard.

Jim (Mudcat) Grant continued his mastery over Washington, defeating the Senators for the 15th time in 16 decisions.

Cleveland, Detroit Swap Managers

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Whether the most unusual trade in baseball history becomes finalized depends on today's meeting in Cleveland between Indians' General Manager Frank Lane and Jimmy Dykes.

Jimmy is one of the pawns involved in Wednesday's unprecedented trade of managers, with the 63-year-old Dykes going to Cleveland and the 45-year-old Joe Gordon to Detroit.

Dykes' Tiger contract expires at the end of this season. Gordon's contract with the Indians has another year to run.

Hardly had the baseball world recovered from the surprise when Dykes announced he would insist on a contract through the 1961 season. Failing to get it he will quit the game, he said.

The new twist took Lane by surprise. The master trader insisted that Dykes had verbally agreed to finish the season with Cleveland. Bill DeWitt, president of the Tigers, who is the mastermind behind this strange transaction, supported Lane.

Dykes, who remained in New York, saw a suddenly aroused Tiger team, which had lost nine of its last 11, pound out a 12-2 victory over the Yankees Wednesday night.

He told newsmen: "I understood on the telephone I was to get the same terms in Cleveland that Gordon had. What sense would it make for me to go to Cleveland just for seven weeks? I could stay out and still get paid for the balance of the season by Detroit."

"Unless I get next year written into the contract, I will quit and go home. I can't take a seven-week situation in which the players and the manager know that the manager will get fired at the end of that time."

Dykes originally planned to join the Indians in Cleveland Friday. Why was it made?

"When your club goes bad," explained DeWitt, "You do one of two things. You either get a lot of new players or you get a new manager. We got a lot of new players and that didn't help. So we got a new manager."

Hope Blasted Out of State Tournament

WALNUT RIDGE, Ark. (AP) — Helena and Conway advanced to today's second round winners' bracket of the state American Legion baseball tournament with victories yesterday over Little Rock Checker Cab and Corning.

In a loser's bracket game yesterday, Pine Bluff eliminated Hope 10-10 in a 19-hit, 10-error contest.

Helena smashed Checker Cab 11-2, allowing the Little Rock team only three hits while playing errorless ball. Conway slipped by Corning 9-7 on a six-run sixth inning.

Helena met Conway today before Tuesday's winners' Walnut Ridge and Fort Smith, tangled. Checker Cab faced Corning in a loser's bracket contest of the double elimination tournament.

Helena got 11 hits against Checker Cab. Four walks, three singles, a double and a triple scored seven runs in the sixth inning, five of them after two men were out.

Conway's big sixth inning came on an error, three doubles and three singles.

Pine Bluff's Fred Maxwell made five mound appearances, shifting to the outfield between pitching turns while two other hurlers took the hill. The three pitchers gave Hope only seven hits, while Pine Bluff pounded out 12 hits and got 10 walks from three Hope hurlers.

Pine Bluff scored six runs each in the fifth and seventh innings. Hope, down 10-3 going into the last inning, staged a seven-run rally in the ninth.

Wide Variety of Weekend Meat Buys

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Shoppers are likely to have difficulty in choosing among the wide variety of weekend meat specials offered by supermarkets and neighborhood groceries.

Beef, lamb and pork are being given almost equal prominence in the list of bargains.

Roast and round roasts top the beef specials, followed by round steak.

Smoked hams are being pushed. An abundance of pasture-fed chickens promises a greater supply of meat, milk and eggs.

Vegetables are available in great supply and variety.

Best buys are snap beans, corn, peppers, tomatoes, yellow or green squash, parsnips, celery, potatoes, cucumbers, eggplant, eggplant, Chinese cabbage, lettuce, radishes, green onions and spinach.

In the good-buy classification are Western lettuce, parsnips, celery, onions and potatoes, Virginia sweet potatoes, broccoli and cauliflower.

Pens and mushrooms still are expensive.

The most attractive buy among fruits are watermelons, limes, blueberries and cantaloupes.

Good buys include avocados, peaches, apples, California Bartlett pears and Florida mangoes.

Says Don't Mix Religion, Politics

FAVETTSVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Religious beliefs shouldn't be a test of qualifications for office, a Methodist leader says. But he added that Sen. John F. Kennedy will find it impossible to divorce his Catholic religion from the presidential campaign.

The Rev. A. Dudley Ward of Chicago said yesterday. "It is regrettable that both Democratic principles as well as to God, to use a man's religious commitment or lack of it as a sole test to either qualify or disqualify him for public office."

Kennedy is the Democratic presidential nominee.

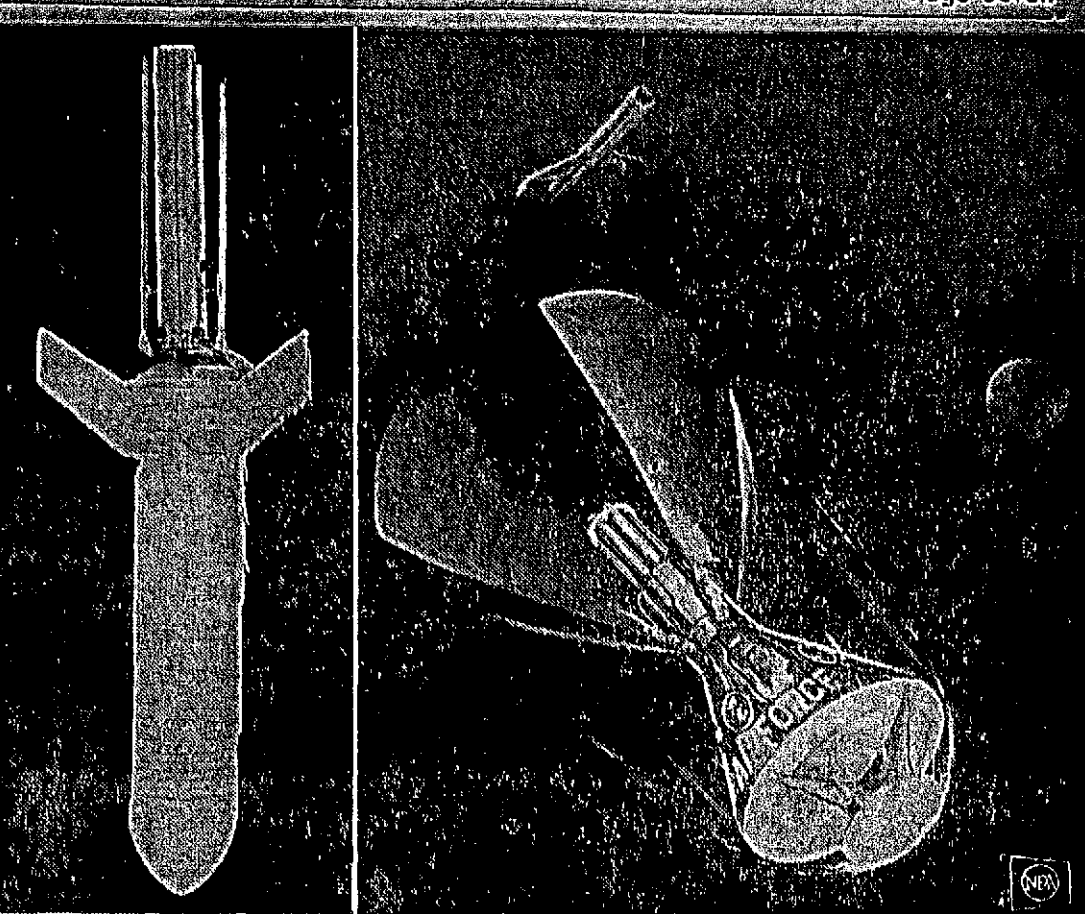

Ward discussed separation of church and state at an organizational meeting of the South Central Methodist Jurisdiction's Board of Christian Social Concern.

Payroll Theft Is Being Probed

WYNNE, Ark. (AP) — Police and postal inspectors are investigating theft of the entire payroll of the Rainfall Co. plant — some $5,000 in checks — from a post office box.

Authorities found all but three of the estimated 125 checks in a waste basket in the post office lobby. They were taken sometime Sunday from a package in the firm's post office box, investigators said.

The firm manufactures men's trousers.

MAPLE SEEDS FROM SPACE—A new idea for recovering space capsules is under study by the Air Force. Helicopterlike rotary wings, working much like a spinning maple seed, are proposed to slow and guide the descent of missiles and other space vehicles. Photo, left, shows a forerunner of the idea which has been tested in more than 1,500 air drops by Kaman Aircraft Corp. Called Rotachute, it consists of a rotatable capsule of about 200 pounds of cargo to the ground. Two rotor blades are attached to the hub. A spring snaps the blades from the folded position and gravity and air pressure combine to make them spin. Drawing, right, shows how the Rotachute might work with a space capsule as it re-enters the atmosphere.

153 Colleges

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — New York's 153 four-year and two-year state colleges will have room for a record 67,467 freshmen this fall. But The State Education Department reported Monday that this is not enough for the 104,000 boys and girls graduated from high schools in the state last June. The Statue of Liberty weighs 225 tons.

Chapter XXXIV

It was three minutes before eleven as he reached the night club where he would be meeting with Marvin Leeds. He opened the door to the unusual clamor to be heard in such a place. Leeds was standing, elbow on the bar. He walked toward Artemus.

"Let's go," he said. Artemus followed Marvin Leeds outside.

"My car," Leeds said. "Nix," Artemus said shortly. "Nine."

Leeds conceded the point. It was not important. There would be transportation to take him away from the scene. His car would remain at the night club and, naturally, there would be witnesses in case of need, to testify that he never left that place of entertainment.

They passed the entrance to Spring Peak Inn.

"Turn off," Leeds said. "From here we walk."

They did not climb far before they descended again into a sort of sandy cove, and at the end of the cove a dim light twinkled. Artemus could see the outlines of a small structure which, as they neared it, became a little shack with a tumble-down abandoned look. They looked toward this cabin. Leeds gave no signal to warn of their approach or to identify a friend — indicating, through Artemus, that they were expected. Leeds thrust open the door into a single room, furnished with a rickety table, a couple of chairs and a hop of blankets in a corner. On these blankets lay outlined in the oblong. Artemus Pomfret Lionel. On one of the chairs sat a man Artemus had seen once before. He was Walker Bayside's houseman, who had served refreshments when with Jennifer Beauregard, Jack Roche and Pomfret Lionel, they had days ago.

Pomfret Lionel raised himself on an elbow and looked at the new arrivals. He was an unkempt boy, otherwise not in a bad state, mus hoped they would act as a guide.

"You all right?" he asked over his shoulder.

"Yes, sir," Pomfret Lionel said with somewhat tremulous politeness.

"Burrow in the blankets," Artemus ordered.

Cautiously he shoved the table over, so that it would afford additional protection to the boy.

Artemus heard a movement in the corner and a sound of scuffling.

"Get back under those blankets," he snapped.

"I just wanted to see," said the boy. "If that man you bopped — I mean Mr. Bayside's man — has a gun. If I had a gun I think I would feel better."

Artemus had forgotten the man he had slugged. Now he felt for him with groping fingers. The man stirred, moaned, attempted to sit. It was no time for compunction. Artemus gripped a shoulder with his left hand and let the man have it again with right. Then, hastily, he palmed him for a weapon and was pleased to find one in the hip pocket. He transferred it to his own coat. It was an automatic, doubling his war-making potential. He could hear no sounds now.

He crept toward the open door across whose threshold lay the body of the man he had shot. Near an outstretched hand, now growing cold, Artemus felt the chilly metal of an open weapon, this time a huge, old-fashioned .44. He thought he detected movement in a clump of greasewood a hundred feet away and up the slope. Because he had ammunition to spare and noise was desirable thing, he opened up with the huge .44, firing three shots in quick succession. They thundered and reverberated from the rocky face of the mountain, and a man leaped up to scurry away and throw himself behind a boulder. (To Be Continued)

Boyer Back on Form, Cards Win 6 in Row

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's no accident that the latest slump of the St. Louis Cardinals—six straight victories—coincides with the return to batting form of Ken Boyer.

The slugging third baseman got off to a low start this year and the team did likewise. A pulled muscle on top of a batting slump benched him for a while.

A week ago, Boyer returned to the lineup and immediately began hitting. The Cards responded by running up a winning streak that Wednesday had them in third place, 3½ games behind league-leading Pittsburgh and only half a game behind second place Milwaukee.

Boyer smashed a home run and two singles Wednesday night, scored three runs and drove in two as the Cards outslugged the Braves 13-8.

Pittsburgh retained its three-game edge on the Braves although beaten by Los Angeles 3-1. The game was called at the end of seven innings because of rain.

Philadelphia made it three in a row over San Francisco 6-5, and Cincinnati split with Chicago. The Cubs won the nightcap, 4-2, after the Reds had taken the opener 7-3.

Detroit crushed New York 12-2 but the Yankees retained their one-game American League lead over Chicago, beaten by Baltimore 6-5, in 11 innings. Cleveland downed Washington 7-4. Rain forced the postponement of the scheduled doubleheader between Kansas City and the Red Sox in Boston.

Johnny Podres' seven-hit pitching and Wally Moon's three-run homers, his 10th of the season, led the Dodgers to victory over Pittsburgh. Bob Friend was the loser.

Pinch hitter John Catton's two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth gave the Phils their one-run triumph over the Giants. Catton's homer provided Dick Farrell with his second victory in two nights over the Giants.

Ernie Banks' 29th home run, with a man on base, was the difference in the Cubs second game triumph over the Reds. Cincinnati had snapped a six-game losing streak in the opener, largely due to homers by rookie Gordon Coleman and Vada Pinson.

Clara, the Trained Hen, Is Missing

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Clara, a trained hen who passed out postcards for coins, is missing from her vending machine home on Central Avenue, Hot Springs' main street.

Police said the hen was taken from her glass cage Tuesday night. When coins were inserted in the machine, Clara would pick up a postcard in her bill and drop it through an opening to the customer.

A hen which "told fortunes" in a similar device disappeared several weeks ago.

A reward has been offered for detection of the chicken thief or return of the hens.

Woodling Bats Orioles to Win Over Chisox

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Baltimore manager Paul Richards has a right to be proud of his fledgling Orioles but he ought to thank his stars that the oldest bird of them all changed his mind about retiring.

The "old bird" is Gene Woodling, who'll be 38 in two weeks but he doesn't act it. Last Monday night Woodling singled in the winning run against Chicago. Wednesday night Gene tripled home the run in the 11th inning that gave the Orioles a 6-5 victory over the White Sox.

The triumph moved the third place Orioles to within two games of the American League leading New York Yankees and one game of the second place Sox.

The Yankees were soundly whipped by the Detroit Tigers, 12-2, but hung on to their one-game margin over Chicago. Cleveland's fourth place Indians defeated Washington 7-4 to advance to within six games of the top.

The scheduled doubleheader between Kansas City and Boston was rained out.

St. Louis' red-hot Cardinals outslugged Milwaukee 13-8 to move to within a half game of the second place Braves in the National League. Los Angeles whipped first place Pittsburgh 3-1. Philadelphia made it three straight over San Francisco 6-5 and Cincinnati split with Chicago. The Reds won the opener 7-3 and the Cubs took the nightcap 4-2.

A single by Billy Klaus preceded Woodling's game winning blow.

Woodling, although hitting .267 is one of Baltimore's leading RBI men with 37. At the end of last season, his 14th in the majors, the veteran was seriously thinking of quitting but reconsidered after talking it over with Richards.

Looking not at all like the team that had lost nine of its last 11, the Tigers flogged four Yankee pitchers for 13 hits, including a home run by Norm Cash.

Tiger southpaw Hank Aguirre retired the first 16 Yankee batters in order before John Blanchard singled with one out in the sixth. Aguirre's arm tightened up after the sixth and his reliever, Phil Regan, was reached for four hits, including a two-run homer by Blanchard.

Jim (Mudcat) Grant continued his mastery over Washington, defeating the Senators for the 15th time in 16 decisions.

Cleveland, Detroit Swap Managers

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Whether the most unusual trade in baseball history becomes finalized depends on today's meeting in Cleveland between Indians' General Manager Frank Lane and Jimmy Dykes.

Jimmy is one of the pawns involved in Wednesday's unprecedented trade of managers, with the 63-year-old Dykes going to Cleveland and the 45-year-old Joe Gordon to Detroit.

Dykes' Tiger contract expires at the end of this season, Gordon's contract with the Indians has another year to run.

Hardly had the baseball world recovered from the surprise when Dykes announced he would insist on a contract through the 1961 season. Failing to get it he will quit the game, he said.

The new twist took Lane by surprise. The master trader insisted that Dykes had verbally agreed to finish the season with Cleveland. Bill DeWitt, president of the Tigers, who is the mastermind behind this strange transaction, supported Lane.

Dykes, who remained in New York, saw a suddenly aroused Tiger team, which had lost nine of its last 11, pound out a 12-1 victory over the Yankees Wednesday night.

He told newsmen: "I understood on the telephone I was to get the same terms in Cleveland that Gordon had. What sense would it make for me to go to Cleveland just for seven weeks? I could stay out and still get paid for the balance of the season by Detroit."

"Unless I get next year written into the contract, I will quit and go home. I can't take a seven-week situation in which the players and the manager know that the manager will get fired at the end of that time."

Dykes originally planned to join the Indians in Cleveland Friday.

Why was it made?

"When your club goes bad," explained DeWitt, "You do one of two things. You either get a lot of new players or you get a new manager. We got a lot of new players and that didn't help. So we got a new manager."

There are about 350 islands in the group known as the Bermudas.

Hope Blasted Out of State Tournament

WALNUT RIDGE, Ark. (AP) — Helena and Conway advanced to today's second round winners' bracket of the state American Legion baseball tournament with victories yesterday over Little Rock, Checker Cab and Corning.

In a loser's bracket game yesterday, Pine Bluff eliminated Hope 18-10 in a 19-hit, 10-error contest.

Helena smashed Checker Cab 11-2, allowing the Little Rock team only three hits while playing errorless ball. Conway slipped by Corning 9-7 on a six-run sixth inning.

Helena met Conway today before Tuesday's winners' Walnut Ridge and Fort Smith. Langed, Checker Cab faced Corning in a loser's bracket contest of the double elimination tournament.

Helena got 11 hits against Checker Cab. Four walks, three singles, a double and a triple scored seven runs in the sixth inning, five of them after two men were out.

Conway's big sixth inning came on an error, three doubles and three singles.

Pine Bluff's Fred Maxwell made five mound appearances, shifting to the outfield between pitching turns while two other hurlers took the hill. The three pitchers gave Hope only seven hits, while Pine Bluff pounded out 12 hits and got 10 walks from three Hope hurlers.

Pine Bluff scored six runs each in the fifth and seventh innings. Hope, down 18-3 going into the last inning, staged a seven-run rally in the ninth.

TWO-MINUTE MYSTERY

THE CASE OF THE FATAL SLIP

By DONALD J. SOBOL

Dr. Haledjian parked his car and offered his services to the state trooper. The policeman was about to question one of the drivers involved in a tragic accident on the winding mountain road.

The driver was young, broad-shouldered, and dressed in evening attire that was spoolless, except at the trouser cuffs and shoes. These were splattered with mud.

Dazedly he told his story.

"I was taking Joan to the dance. That other car crossed the center line, forcing me wide. The road is slippery from the rain this morning, and I skidded off the embankment."

"Luckily," he continued, "I escaped injury when my car hit that tree. But Anne was knocked unconscious. I carried her back toward the road. As I passed the side of the ravine, I slipped and she tumbled from my arms. It was horrible!"

"I didn't cross the line," insisted the other driver. "When I heard his car crash through the rail, I braked and hurried back to help."

"What did you see?" asked Haledjian.

"He was carrying the young lady," admitted second driver. "As he got near the embankment, he slipped to his knees and the girl fell without a sound."

Haledjian descended the treacherously wet embankment. The mingling of grass, rocks, and mud made a search for footprints useless.

At the spot where the first driver said he lost his life, Haledjian could see the broken figure of the girl a hundred feet below.

Back on the road he said, "I

"As I passed the side of the ravine, I slipped and she tumbled from my arms."

should I tell both these men on suspicion of murder, officer?"

WHY?

"I don't know," he said. "I don't know if you could find any evidence on the embankment."

Wide Variety of Weekend Meat Buys

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Shoppers are likely to have difficulty in choosing among the wide variety of weekend meat specials offered by supermarkets and neighborhood groceries.

Beef, lamb and pork are being given almost equal prominence in the list of bargains.

Rib and round roasts top the beef specials, followed by round steak.

Smoked hams are being pushed. An abundance of pasture fed promises a greater supply of meat, milk and eggs.

Vegetables are available in great supply and variety.

Best buys are snap beans, corn, peppers, tomatoes, yellow or green squash, parsnip celery, potatoes, cucumbers, endive, escarole, eggplant, chives, cabbage, lettuce, radishes, green onions, and spinach.

In the good buy classification are Western lettuce, parsnip celery, onions and potatoes, Virginia sweet potatoes, broccoli and cauliflower.

Pears and mushrooms still are expensive.

The most attractive buy among fruits are watermelons, limes, blueberries and cantaloupes.

Good buys include avocados, peaches, apples, California Bartlett pears and Florida mangoes.

Says Don't Mix Religion, Politics

FAVETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Religious beliefs shouldn't be a test of qualifications for office, a Methodist leader says. But he added that Sen. John F. Kennedy will find it impossible to divorce his Catholic religion from the presidential campaign.

The Rev. A. Dudley Ward of Chicago said yesterday. "It is repugnant, both to Democratic principles as well as to God, to use a man's religious commitment or lack of it as a sole test to either qualify or disqualify him for public office."

Kennedy is the Democratic presidential nominee.

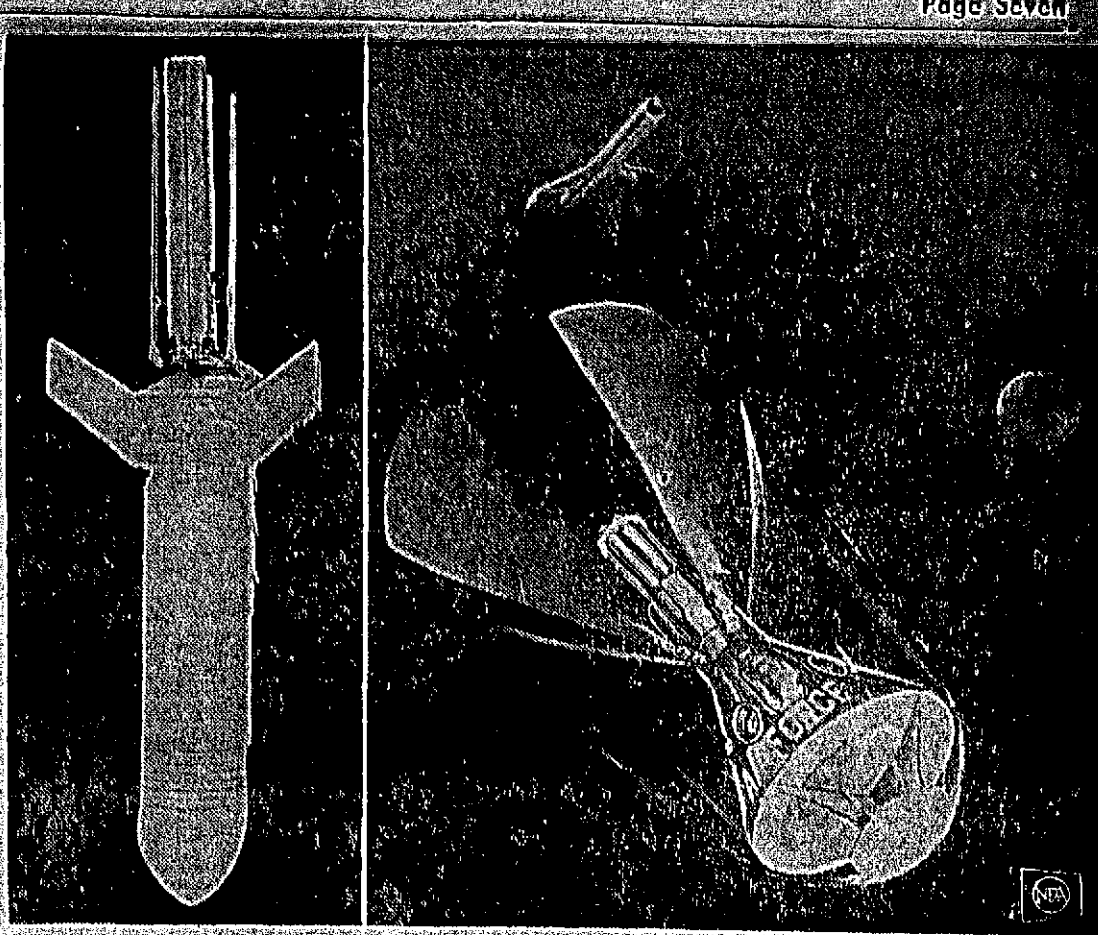

Ward discussed separation of church and state at an organizational meeting of the South Central Methodist Jurisdiction's Board of Christian Social Concern.

Payroll Theft Is Being Probed

WYNNE, Ark. (AP) — Police and postal inspectors are investigating theft of the entire payroll of the Rainier Co. plant — some $5,000 in checks — from a post office box.

Authorities found all but three of the estimated 125 checks in a waste basket in the post office lobby. They were taken sometime Sunday from a package in the firm's post office box, investigators said.

The firm manufactures men's trousers.

MAPLE SEEDS FROM SPACE—A new idea for recovering space capsules is under study by the Air Force. Helicopter hoist systems, working in much the same way as the one shown, are proposed to slow and guide the descent of missiles and other space vehicles. Photo, left, shows a forerunner of the idea which has been tested in more than 1,600 air drops by Canadian Air-Craft Corp. Called Rotochute, it consists of a pod capable of floating about 200 pounds of cargo to the ground. Two rotor blades are attached to the hub. A spring snaps the blades from the folded position and gravity and air pressure combine to make them spin. Drawing, right, shows how the Rotochute might work with a space capsule as it re-enters the atmosphere.

153 Colleges

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — New York's 153 four-year and two-year state colleges will have room for a record 67,007 freshmen this fall, schools in the state last June. But the State Education Department reported Monday that this is not enough for the 164,000 boys and girls graduated from high schools last year.

COUNTERFEIT GENTLEMAN

Chapter XXXIV

It was three minutes before eleven as he reached the night club where he would be meeting with Marvin Leeds. He opened the door to the unusual clamor to be heard in such a place. Leeds was standing, ebullient on the bar. He walked toward Artemus.

"Let's go," he said. Artemus followed Marvin Leeds outside.

"My car," Leeds said.

"Nix," Artemus said shortly.

"Leeds conceded the point. It was not important. There would be transportation to take him away from the scene. His car would remain at the night club, and, naturally, there would be witnesses, in case of need, to testify that he never left that place of entertainment.

They passed the entrance to Squaw Peak Inn.

"Turn off," Leeds said. "From here, we walk."

They did not climb far before they descended again into a sort of sandy cove, and at the end of the cove a dim light twinkled. Artemus could see the outlines of a small structure which, as they neared it, became a little shack with a tumble-down abandoned look.

They looked toward this cabin. Leeds gave no signal to warn of their approach or to identify a friend — indicating, thought Artemus, that they were expected. Leeds thrust open the door into a single room, furnished with a rickety table, a couple of chairs and a hop of blankets in a corner. On these blankets lay Pomfret Lionel. On one of the chairs sat a man Artemus had seen once before. He was Walker Dayside, houseman, who had served refreshments when with Jennifer Beauregard, Jack Roche and Pomfret Lionel, they had days ago.

Pomfret Lionel raised himself on an elbow and looked at the arrivals. He was an unkempt boy, otherwise not in a bad state of preservation.

"I got caught, Mr. Baldwin," he said sheepishly.

"Snooping?" Artemus asked.

"Investigating," Pomfret Lionel corrected. "This man" — he nodded toward the person in the chair — "caught me. They were kind of rough. Not bad, but kind of."

The trap was ready to spring. Artemus had nibbled the bait. It would be any moment now. He took steps toward the boy to interpose his body between him and come what might.

"I take over from here," he said to Leeds. "Seram."

Leeds cocked his head, listening. Artemus listened. The crunch of footsteps became audible — of more than one heavy person approaching.

"I like it here," Leeds said. "I'll stick around."

The approaching footsteps could not belong to his friends, Artemus was sure. It was too soon. Whoever was arriving now had been there in waiting. It was the crunching of the trap. The crunching feet were almost at the door.

Artemus took one step toward the man seated in the chair and delivered a short, jolting blow under the chin. Even as the man was falling the Secret Service man smashed the lantern from the table, leaving the room in utter blackness, and flung himself prone on the floor.

The door was jerked open from outside and a black figure was outlined in the oblong. Artemus fired from the floor and flung himself to one side. The sound of the shot in the small place sounded like a mighty explosion. The man in the doorway lurched forward, fell prone and there, after a long time, he lay.

Artemus crouched low in the blackness, fired at the flash, but Artemus was no longer there.

The two explosions would be heard far in the still night. Artemus hoped they would act as a guide.

"You all right?" he asked over his shoulder.

"Yes, sir," Pomfret Lionel said with somewhat tremulous politeness.

"Barrow in the blankets," Artemus ordered.

Cautiously he shoved the table over, so that it would afford additional protection to the boy.

Artemus heard a movement in the corner and a sound of scuffling.

"Get back under those blankets," he snapped.

"I just wanted to see," said the boy. "If that man you bopped — I mean Mr. Dayside's man — has a gun. If I had a gun I think I would feel better."

Artemus had forgotten the man he had slugged. Now he felt for him with groping fingers. The man stirred, moaned, attempted to sit. It was no time for compunction. Artemus gripped a shoulder with his left hand and let the man have it again with right. Then, hastily, he patted him for a weapon and was pleased to find one in the hip pocket. He transferred it to his own coat. "It was an automatic, doubling his war-making potential. He could hear no sounds now.

He crept toward the open door across whose threshold lay the body of the man he had shot. Near an outstretched hand, now growing cold, Artemus felt the chilly metal of an open weapon, this time a huge, old-fashioned .44.

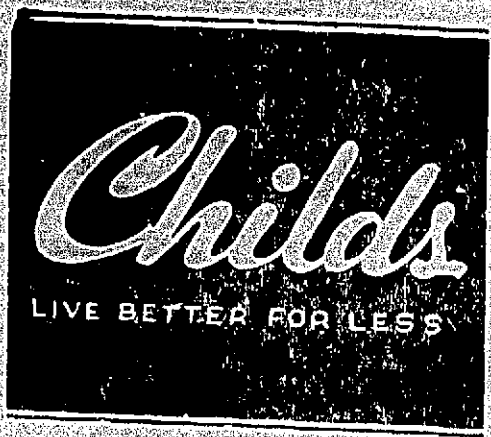

He thought he detected movement in a clump of greasewood a hundred feet away and up the slope. Because he had ammunition to spare and noise was desirable thing, he opened up with the huge .44, firing three shots in quick succession. They thundered and reverberated from the rocky face of the mountain, and a man leaped up to scurry away and throw himself behind a boulder.

Man Arrested for Abducting Negroes

COLUMBIANA, Ala. (AP) — A white man has been arrested in the abduction of two Negroes, one of whom was fogged.

Sheriff C. P. Walker said the man, Emmett V. Leverette, 32, is held on a warrant charging kidnapping.

Henry Jones, 20, a service station attendant, said there were six white men in the group which took him and his brother David, 19, from the yard of Henry's house at Harpersville.

Walker declined to say whether he had warrants for anyone else. Leverette has made no statement, Walker said.

Jones told officers that he and his brother were met by two carloads of white men at his home Saturday night. He said they were taken to a wooded section in adjacent Coosa County where he was stripped of his underwear, tied to a tree and whipped with belts and knotted ropes. The younger brother was not harmed.

Jones said the men told him they didn't want Negroes working at service stations in Harpersville.

Record in July

NEW YORK (AP) — The Weather Bureau has come up with another record for July here. It was the rainiest July since 1899 with a total fall of 9.97 inches. The bureau previously announced the average temperature of 72.6 made it the coolest July since 1925.

Castro Moves Out of Guarded Home

HAVANA (AP) — Ailing Mide Castro reportedly has moved out of his well-guarded suburban home to another well-guarded but more secluded resting place.

A source close to the Prime Minister said Castro had been persuaded to leave his residence to avoid well-wishers and the curious so he can get the complete rest his doctors have ordered.

It was unlikely there would be any official word on his whereabouts until Saturday, when he is scheduled to address the closing session of the Communist-accented Latin-American youth congress.

Rumors about Castro continued to fly fast and furiously. One that gained little credence was that he had flown secretly to Geneva for treatment of his ailment, which has been officially described as a long infection.

Camden Ballot Probe Continues

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — A Ouachita County Grand Jury investigation of alleged irregularities in absentee voting in last week's Democratic primary election will resume tomorrow.

Prosecutor Bill Prewitt said the jury, which recessed yesterday after two days of hearing witnesses, would reconvene tomorrow. The ballots involved in the investigation could not change the electoral outcome of any primary contests.

Neither Nixon, the Republican standard bearer, nor Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, have given solid clues on choices for the top cabinet.

Dillon Likely Choice of Secretary

By JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON (AP) — Douglas Dillon, 50, a fellow who talks tough to the Soviet Union, but softly to Congress, seems to be the backstage favorite for the job of secretary of state.

President Richard M. Nixon is expected to name a secretary of state.

Neither Nixon, the Republican standard bearer, nor Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, have given solid clues on choices for the top cabinet.

Soviet Auto Sales to Await Trial

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — The Soviet-made Moskvitch automobile will not be sold in the United States until 1961, says a spokesman for the Federal Trade Commission.

Castle said he expected to get $1,400 each for the 10,000 cars he had contracted to import.

He said fewer than 100 were in this country. He had expected to receive 600 more in June but cancelled the order because of the collapse of the summit conference, he said.

ADA Action Is Denounced

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The American Dental Ass'n's endorsement of a commercial toothpaste was "absolutely contrary to the established procedures," a former ADA president, Dr. W. H. Alstadt, of Little Rock, says.

Alstadt, ADA president in 1954, said yesterday he was "very shocked" by the endorsement of Crest toothpaste. He called the action "promiscuous."

The ADA Journal Monday endorsed the dentifrice as "useful in preventing decay." After the announcement the stock of Procter & Gamble Co., its manufacturer, rose about $8.

Dr. Alstadt said the ADA has tried to encourage "good, sound oral health procedures," but that some of its greatest difficulties have come from "some few dentifrice manufacturers making wild, extravagant claims for their products."

Faubus' Pals Back on State Payroll

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Five state officials who took brief leaves to work in Gov. Orval E. Faubus' successful campaign for a fourth term nomination are back on the state payroll.

They are State Revenue Commissioner J. Orville Cheney; Arkansas Commerce Commission member Arnold Sikes; Employment Security Division Administrator J. L. Bland; Jim Phillips, assistant State Hospital administrator, and Mrs. Patsy Ellis, a Faubus administrative aide.

A few clerical employees who took leaves to work for Faubus also are back on the state payroll, the governor's office said.

To Remain African

TUNIS, Tunisia (AP) — "Africa is not opposed to the West. Africa is not Communist. Africa will remain African," Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba said today.

A Soviet airliner brought Lumumba from London after an aid-seeking visit to the United States and Canada.

inel post. But Kennedy has two leading prospects in Chester Bowles and Adlai E. Stevenson, his foreign policy advisors.

Nixon could always turn to some dark horse candidate as his selection. But lately in Republican circles, the name of Dillon, the State Department's No. 2 man, has been hobnobbing in informal surveys.

Dillon, a millionaire former investment banker, is mentioned more frequently than former New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey who might be available as Nixon's foreign policy chief, if asked.

Dillon assets are readily apparent. He would be far less controversial than Dewey who has voiced some biting criticism of Democrats. For 7 1/2 years Dillon has worked in the State Department's top echelon handling many of the tough international problems that will continue to plague the nation in the 1960s.

A third important reason could be the increasingly close Nixon-Dillon friendship that has developed in the past few months. Dillon's aides confirm that the two men have met frequently and sometimes talked twice daily on the phone.

All these talks were objective discussions of foreign policy problems. They say, without any more by Dillon to provide Nixon with campaign ammunition to shoot at the Democrats.

Dillon is known, however, to be delighted with the stress Nixon put on foreign aid and long-term help to underdeveloped countries in his speech accepting the nomination for the presidency.

Dillon's views perhaps were also visible in Nixon's isolated pledge to seek to step up the nation's rate of economic growth in order to keep ahead of the Soviet Union's mounting industrial drive.

For two years, Dillon was the lone administration voice publicly advocating this, at a time when such suggestions came mainly from the Democrats and New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

But his main appeal is his low-key no-nonsense approach to questions asked him at hearings. He gives congressmen a maximum of information and a minimum of diplomatic doubletalk. He backs up his replies with detailed statistics, facts, and figures.

Week at SAFEWAY

From the farms and industries of Arkansas come an abundance of wonderful products for feeding the families of the State... and of the nation. Arkansas producers are among the most progressive in the country... constantly working to turn out finer products at lower cost for the consumer.

For 31 years now, we of Safeway have been privileged to be a part of Arkansas, serving the food needs of its families, providing ever-widening markets for the output of the state's farms and industries, and providing employment for hundreds of Arkansas people. We are proud to have shared in the dynamic growth of the "Wonder State", and this week we are paying special tribute to this growth by giving feature attention in our stores to ARKANSAS PRODUCTS.

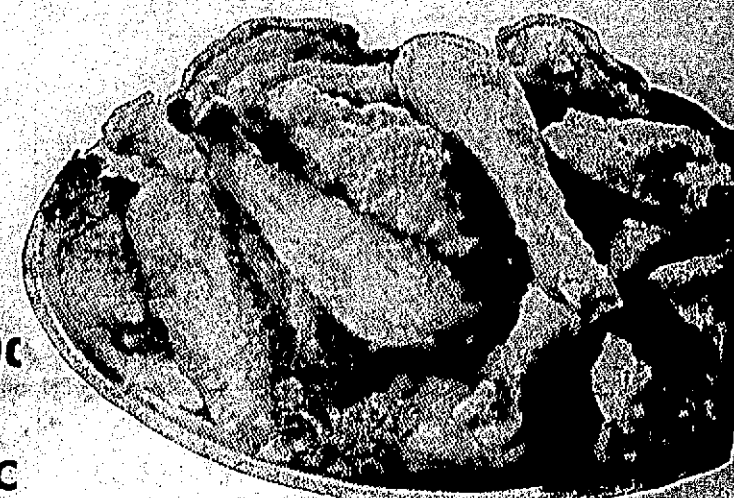

In 1959, Safeway produced for sale across the country over 32 million pounds of Arkansas-raised poultry. This put millions of dollars into the State's economy, which is just one example of Safeway's part in helping the growth of the "Wonder State".

Soviet Bloc Campaigns for Boycott

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Soviet bloc campaigned today for a general boycott of the 82-nation U.N. Disarmament Commission meeting asked by the United States for Aug. 15.

Contact men from the nine Communist delegations were visiting Asian, African and other missions to the U.N., urging that they stay away from the meeting. The Communists were plugging the Soviet Union's rival proposal for a summit conference of all 82 U.N. members during the General Assembly convening Sept. 20.

The Communist argument was that the permanent U.N. delegates who make up the Disarmament Commission have authority to do no more than engage in the time-wasting debate, while the heads of government have full power to conclude agreements. Diplomatic sources said most U.N. delegations had agreed informally to the Aug. 15 meeting before commission chairman Luis Padilla Nervo of Mexico proposed it formally last Friday. But many were reported reconsidering the cause of the Soviet stand.

The feeling in some delegations seemed to be that a disarmament meeting without one of the world's two big armed camps would only underline and cement the deadlock between the West and the Communists.

The State Department said, however, that it was going ahead with its proposal for the commission meeting even without the Soviets. Press officer Lincoln White said in Washington any government head—including Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev—could attend the commission meeting if he wanted to, and that commission discussion did not preclude a disarmament discussion by the General Assembly.

Pigeon Is Freed

NEW YORK (AP)—Police Tuesday night freed a lonely pigeon that had stared out of a show window in an abandoned store building for two days. The bird apparently entered through an upstairs window and then couldn't find its way out.

Sympathetic neighbors had lowered food to the pigeon through a vestibule opening.

Residents Warned of Lake Waves

ST. JOSEPH, Mich. (AP)—Residents of low-lying areas along the Lake Michigan shore here were alerted briefly today against a threat of waves four to six feet high moving in from the lake. The alert was called off by the Weather Bureau after it developed the disturbance on the lake was a surge of water caused by storm conditions rather than a seiche, pronounced saysh.

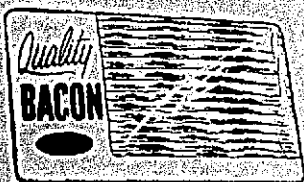

A seiche results from a sudden change in atmospheric pressure piling up waves without warning.

A seiche killed eight persons in Chicago on the other side of Lake Michigan June 26, 1954.

Macmillan Moving

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan started moving out of No. 10 Downing St. today. For the next two years the official residence of Britain's Prime Minister will be occupied by workmen rebuilding the rickety old structure.

Weatherman Thinks Its Too Hot

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Even the weatherman thinks it's too hot in Arkansas.

At least one does, and C. D. McKenny said today he wants to go back to the South Pole.

McKenny spent a year working on weather missions at the bottom of the world, where the temperature yesterday, for example, was 93 below zero.

He is taking training in radio soundings at the U. S. Weather Bureau here but expects to join a 10-man weather team in the Antarctic soon.

Besides the heat, McKenny has been suffering from hay fever during his brief stay in Little Rock.

Down at the Pole he said, "there's no sickness, no colds, and my hay fever doesn't bother me."

McKenny's wife and adopted daughter will remain at the family home in Phoenix, Ariz., when he returns to the land of snow and ice.

McKenny likes cold places, particularly the South Pole, where he has also worked in the past.

northern polar regions but prefers the South Pole because it's even bleaker and colder than the North Pole.

He got more peace of mind at the South Pole, he said.

Rights Party Is Forming a Slate

LITTLE ROCK, Aug. 2 (AP) — The National States Rights Party, which nominated Gov. Orval E. Faubus for president, plans to try to get on the November general election ballot in Arkansas.

The party's Arkansas chairman, Mrs. E. L. Bishop of North Little Rock yesterday got petitions needed for the party to appear on the ballot. Secretary of State C. G. Hall said 25,225 signatures would be required to get on the ballot.

Faubus has said he did not authorize his nomination at a States Rights Party convention last March in Miamisburg, Ohio.

The party's platform included a white supremacy plank.

A third party was on the 1956 Arkansas ballot. That was the Constitution Party, with T. Coleman Andrews as the presidential nominee.

The State Legislature since then has lightened requirements for getting on the ballot.

New Manager of El Dorado TV

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — Appointment of John Snell, formerly of Milwaukee, as new general manager of television station KTVB was announced today.

Snell was selected for the job by William Simons, the Washington real estate dealer who has purchased the station.

Snell formerly was vice president and general manager of station WISN in Milwaukee. He also formerly was with the Dumont network.

Simons, as president of Home Television Co., Inc., and Bill Bigley, general manager of Arkansas Louisiana Television Co., which sold the station, yesterday completed formalities for the transfer.

The sale price was $1,100,000 (the Federal Communications Commission was told).

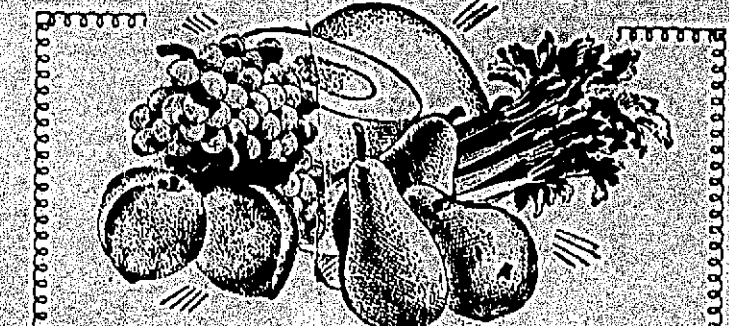

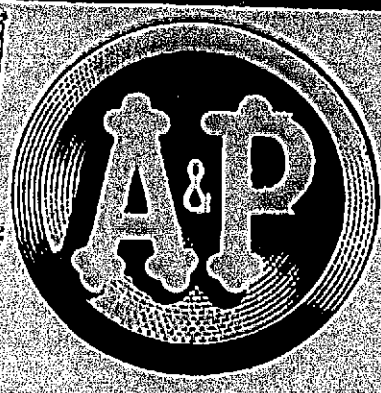

Bigley has not announced his plans.

Cuba Accuses U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Diplomatic sources say Cuba has sent a 24-page memorandum to the Inter-American Peace Committee accusing the United States of economic aggression and other alleged anti-Cuban actions.

Will Use Jets to Bring in Olympic Film

TELEVISION IN REVIEW
By STEVE SNIDER

United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI) — The Summer Olympic Games will be declared open on Aug. 25 when the Olympic flame, borne from Greece by a series of cross-country runners, is transferred to the great torch in the main stadium at Rome.

Every day thereafter comes a 160-mile relay — by wire, by microwave, by jet plane — to bring day-by-day coverage of the Olympics to American viewers. It's a gamble that CBS hopes will pay off.

"We'll have 20 hours of Olympic coverage in prime TV time," said CBS sports director Bill MacPhail. "And if all goes well, particularly the weather over the Atlantic, we'll be able to get certain afternoon events on the air in New York that night."

The Rome games, greatest athletic extravaganza of any year, are a CBS exclusive as were the Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley, Calif. (Other networks will have newsreel coverage on regular newscasts as they did from Squaw Valley.)

Roughly two-thirds of the coverage will be in track and field," said MacPhail. "That's the sport we're most interested in over here. However, we'll also cover swimming, basketball and boxing as well as any other event that might star an American athlete. In addition, we plan to show cycling finals which should make good viewing even though it's not a big sport in the United States."

Complicated Procedure

Setting up the relay to get the taped shows into a New York studio was a complicated procedure. Involved in the set-up are cameramen from the Italian state network, facilities of the French network (RTP) in Paris, American commercial jet airlines, and four CBS units — in Rome, Paris, Idlewild, (N.Y.) Airport and New York City.

By going through Paris, MacPhail believes he can save enough time to get afternoon events on evening shows scheduled for U.S. viewers from 11:15 p. m. — 11:45 p. m. e.d.t. on a Monday through Friday basis. Track and field events are staged during the day. So is some swimming and basketball but most of the finals in those two events will be at night in Rome and cannot be seen here until the following day.

Here's the set-up:

The games will be taped originally by the Italian state network. We'll sit down with them every day to discuss what coverage we'd like," MacPhail said.

Must Convert Tapes

The French network, which has scheduled 60 hours of coverage, will pipe the stuff to Paris. There the tapes must be converted from the European TV system of 625 lines (on the picture) to the American 525 lines. The converted tape is to be micro-waved to Idlewild outside Paris, put in cans, and flown to Idlewild where it'll be micro-waved to Micro-wave to New York City — to save an hour's delay in New York traffic.

Over a private audio line from Rome to Paris, American commentators (Gil Stratton, Bud Palmer, Bob Richards, H. D. Thoreau and assorted sports specialist will match voice to picture.

An anchor man in New York will tie the shows together. And if the relay fails to meet a deadline?

"We'll have alternate programs ready," said MacPhail. "It'll be coverage of top features from the previous day or night. But we're keeping our fingers crossed."

Man's Body Is Taken From River

OSCEOLA, Ark. (AP) — The body of a Blytheville man who drowned in the Mississippi River was recovered near here today. Thomas Vincent, 21, drowned while trying to swim across Mcgraves Chute near Blytheville. Three fishermen discovered the body about five miles south of Osceola.

Sermon Seemed Appropriate

GRAVETTE, Ark. (AP) — Services at the First Christian Church were cancelled Sunday because the pastor and his wife became the parents of a son. The topic of the sermon to Rev. Gaylon Decous had scheduled was: "When Two Become One."

Challenges Mr. K

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States challenged Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to resume serious disarmament negotiations with the Western powers instead of trying to "distract and confuse" world opinion with propaganda. That was the U.S. reply to a Khrushchev message to the world conference on nuclear arms and hydrogen bomb testing in 1960.
